

Pike Showcase Photos

Jim Harrington's "Green Valley and Western" in New Albany has hosted visitors during Regional and National Convention tours and was featured in Model Railroading magazine in December 2002.

Photos by Jerry Ashley

Above are two scenes from Charlie Keeling's "Paw Paw" lines.

Photos by Bob Dawson

Trackside Contest

The roundhouse in the photo no longer stands and the locomotives of today are dressed in a different livery, but the otherwise the scene is much the same today. Name the street (also the name of the adjacent railroad yard) this viaduct crosses. Have your correct entry drawn at the February meeting and win a prize.

Photo by Charlie Keeling

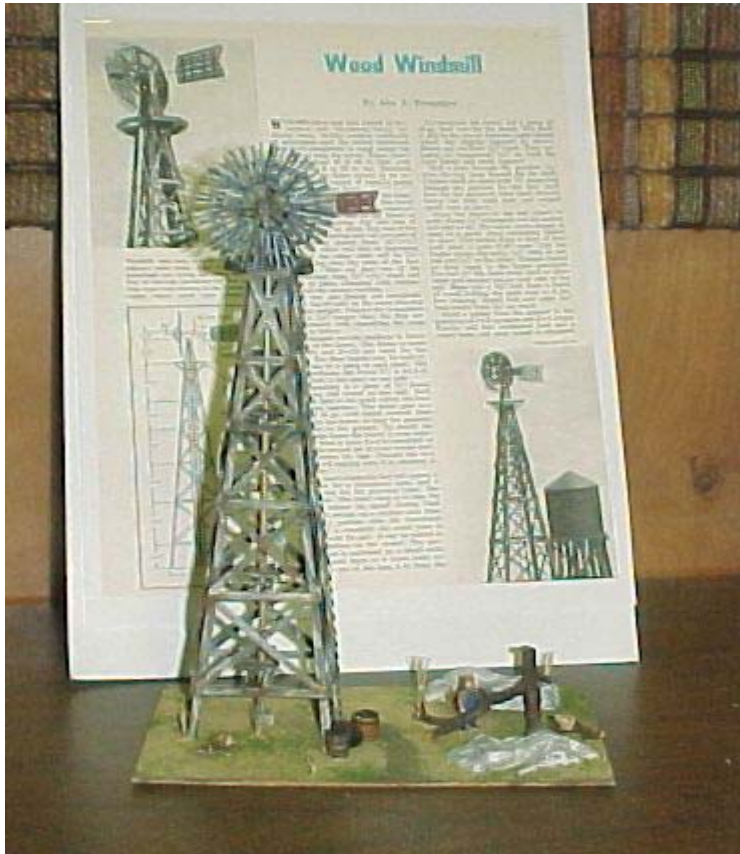

January Contest Winner

Jim Harrington's model Pickle Car took the honors for the January Model Contest. See the month's PIKE SHOWCASE for more examples of Jim modeling expertise.

Photo by Bob Dawson

Scratch Built Prototype

Gene Hinderer made this HO Scale Windmill to the left. Jerry Ashley reports that Gene cut the wood he used from a pain stirring stick.

Photo by Jerry Ashley

Silver Spike Award

Superintendent Jerry Ashley presents Kevin Jones with the Division 8 Silver Spike Award. Kevin was recognized for his long service to Division 8 and NMRA. In addition to holding elective offices, Kevin, as co-chairman, was instrumental in developing our Train Show and Sale into the successful event it is today.

Photo by Ivan Baugh

Bob Lawson is being kept busy

Bob Lawson's layout in Danville, Kentucky is famed its highly detailed and weathered structures. Here is the shop where they began. When finished, these structures will be part of a layout he is building in a second home in the Cincinnati area. Photo by Bob Dawson